STAGES St. Louis is dedicated to the safety of all staff, students, artists, patrons, and the surrounding St. Louis community as our world continues to adjust to the current COVID-19 climate. With this in mind, the following safety guidelines and regulations are in affect for the STAGES offices at both the Kent Center for Theatre Arts and Production Shops.

At this time STAGES has two Reopening Safety Plans. They are as follows:

STAGES Performing Arts Academy

Mission: The purpose of this document is to provide clear and actionable guidance for safe operations through the prevention, early detection, and control of COVID-19 in the Academy and other educational facilities.

Applies to: Academy year-round staff, teaching artists, students, and families

STAGES Administrative Office, Box Office, and Production Office

Mission: The purpose of this document is to provide clear and actionable guidance for safe operations through the prevention, early detection, and control of COVID-19 in the Administrative Office, Box Office, and Production Office.

Applies to: Administrative year-round staff, consultants, and visitors

As we approach the beginning of our 2021 Season, STAGES will work in conjunction with Actors' Equity Association Union (AEA) to create an additional plan addressing the safety of all productions as well as the staff, artists, and audience members involved.

Additionally, we require all those working or volunteering with STAGES to view the Missouri ArtSafe Training Video. To access the video, please click here.
